YOU'VE HAD TROUBLE

With your ruler—not one of the powers that be, but an instrument for guiding the pen in drawing a straight line. You've found that the line wasn't drawn where you expected. The ink also has run down from the edge of the ruler, and left an unexpected and exasperating blot. Try Starrett's Desk Rule. It costs more than cheap rulers, and it's worth more. It is of thin, spring-tempered steel, nicked. The thinness brings the working edge close to the paper. You draw the line just where you want it. The edge is sharply beveled, so that ink won't stick to it. Mailed on receipt of price.
