Worthy of Notice.

Those who know Spitz Bros. & Mork, Wholesale and Retail Clothiers, at 67 and 69 Summer Street, know that any statement they make in the newspapers can be relied on as absolutely true.

They advertise a special reduction sale of $2.00 to $4.00 on a suit on their whole stock of Black Clay Worsted Suits, all new, stylish garments of this season's make and of only reliable fabrics.

The regular prices are plainly marked on the tickets, but you will be allowed the advertised reduction on every suit.

If you are not pleased with your suit, on comparison with others' prices, they will cheerfully refund your money.

This sale will continue only until Easter.

The reduction of prices at this time is noteworthy because of the recent advance in price of clay cloths in anticipation of the new tariff.

It will pay any one in want of a suit for Easter or Dress use to visit their store and see for himself what sort of a bargain he is getting.

They are at 67 and 69 Summer Street, in the wholesale district, one minute from Washington Street.
