A STUDENT SHOULD ALWAYS LOOK NEAT

Of course the clothes do not make the man, but you know people often judge a man by his appearance. Now, as Tailors, it is our business to take care of the outward appearance, and we try to do it well.

SOULE PHOTOGRAPH CO., Publishers,
338 Washington Street, Boston.

THERE is not a photographer in New England who has been more successful than Elmer Chickering, of No. 21 West Street, and people who desire to have first-class photographs taken, of themselves, or of their friends, should go to this gallery. His success in the business is wonderful. His pictures are admitted to be exact reproductions of the subject, and are remarkable for their clearness and fidelity in detail. Among his patrons are the leading citizens of the United States, including presidents, governors, mayors, and others prominent in official lines, the highest military officers, the most prominent opera singers, the leading actors and actresses. Far and near his pictures are known. In Europe as well as America they are highly admired. Mr. Chickering is a host in himself, but with good judgment he has surrounded himself with a corps of operators and assistants in his operating rooms who have no superiors, while in his office is to be found young lady attendants who thoroughly understand how to please patrons, and by their uniform courtesy add much to the popularity of "Chickering's Studio."
