the Castle Square management announces a production of Mr. A. W. Pinero's comedy, "The Magistrate." The cast will be very good, and there will be the usual souvenir on Tuesday.

Tremont Theatre.—For the last week of her engagement Mme. Modjeska will appear in Shakespearean roles. There probably will be a grand reproduction of "Measure for Measure" and "Macbeth." Mme. Modjeska is supported by Joseph Haworth, who is a great favorite in Boston.

Boston Museum.—The second week of Klaw & Erlanger's greatest success, "Jack and the Beanstalk." Miss Madge Lessing is repeating her success of last year, as are all the rest of this famous cast, including Miss Hollins, Miss Lynch, Hubert Wilke, Ross Snow, and many others.

Park Theatre.—This will be the last week of "The Ballet Girl." The play has had enormous success in Boston, for it is full of bright music and is given by a most excellent company.
