Castle Square Theatre.—A pleasing comedy by Martha Morton, entitled “Brother John,” will have its first performance at this theatre.

Boston Theatre.—The New York and London success, the “White Heather,” will have its first performance in Boston. It is a spectacular melodrama by the authors of “The Sporting Duchess.” Miss Rose Coghlan, Amelia Bingham, John T. Sullivan, and Wallace Campbell are in the cast.

Park Theatre.—“A French Maid,” a comic opera new to Boston, will introduce the famous Parisienne, Miss Annie Held, in her first English-speaking part. She will present a brilliant specialty in a $30,000 gown.

Boston Museum.—Messrs. Klaw & Erlanger will present for the first time in Boston a new and novel comedy by John McNally. The cast will present many persons well known in Boston, among them Miss Georgia Caine, Miss Ada Lewis, the Rogers brothers, and George Marion.
