Hollis Street Theatre.—Next week the popular Nat Goodwin and Miss Maxine Elliott will continue to appear in “Nathan Hale.” Mr. Goodwin and Miss Elliott are so well known that no comment is necessary.

Tremont Theatre.—Miss Blanche Walsh and Mr. Melbourne Macdowell commence a two-weeks’ engagement. “La Tosca” will be presented on the nights of December 19th and 23d, and matinee the 21st. “Cleopatra” on nights of December 20th, 21st, 22d, and 24th, and matinee the 24th.

Park Theatre.—Henry E. Dixey is scoring a great success in the role of a typical circus clown in the Parisian vaudeville, “Hotel Topsy Turvy.” David Lythgoe and Alice Athernone assist greatly in the merriment of the piece.

Boston Museum.—Mr. William Gillette has another laurel in the success of “Because She Loved Him So.” The New York engagements of the company have been cancelled in order to extend the engagement here. The play is clean, bright, and amusing.
