Park Theatre. — "Kate Kip," which is the greatest success of the many that Miss May Irwin has ever attempted, will continue this coming week.

Castle Square Theatre. — The regular company will produce C. Haddon Chamber's modern play, "The Idler," which is expected to be as great a success as their last play has been.

Boston Theatre. — Alice Nielsen will appear in "The Fortune Teller." This opera was written by Victor Herbert and Harry B. Smith.

Boston Museum. — Viola Allen will appear as Glory Quayle in the dramatization of Hall Caine's famous novel, "The Christian." This play had a tremendous run in New York, and it looks as if the same thing will happen here in Boston this time.

Hollis Street Theatre. — Miss Marlowe will continue to play "Colinette" and her other plays, which are well appreciated by the Boston public. "Colinette" is a new comedy of the time of Louis XVIII. of France, and is a grand success.
