HATS.

STYLISH HEAD-WEAR FOR SPRING. :: Golf and Eaton Caps a Specialty.

GEO. L. GRIFFIN & SON,

404 Washington Street, Boston.

Ten Per cent Discount to Tech. Students.

UMBRELLAS.

WARD'S

College Engraving a Specialty.

BOSTON BOND, BOSTON LINEN & BUNKER HILL

on their desks. They are very popular and reasonable in price.

All Students should have our Fine Writing Paper and Envelopes,

SAMUEL WARD COMPANY,

Manufacturing Stationers,

49 Franklin Street, Boston.

STICKS.

STOD DEF

DISCOUNT OF 10% GIVEN TO
TECH. STUDENTS.

COES & STODDER

GENTLEMEN'S IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC

SHOES

4.00 TO 9.00

14 SCHOOL ST. AND
78 BOYLSTON ST. BOSTON.

English factory at Long Buckby, near Rugby, Northamptonshire, England.

THEATRE NOTES

Week beginning April 24, 1899.

Hollis Street Theatre.— Boston theatre-goers will welcome the return of Mr. E. H. Sothern this week in "The King's Musketeer," under the management of Charles Frohman.

Tremont Theatre.— Daly's play, "The Runaway Girl," will again be produced by one of his companies. All that have not seen it should not fail to do so this time.

Castle Square Theatre.— The stirring drama, "The Banker's Daughter," will be played by the regular company. This drama is a fine one, and every person who sees it will be well repaid.

Boston Theatre.— The distinguished character actor, James A. Herne, will produce his last play, "Griffith Davenport." This is a play written by Mr. Herne and has proved a great success.

Park Theatre.— "A Dangerous Maid" begins its second week at the Park. In this is the old "Jack and the Beanstalk" favorite, Madge Lessing, and Cissie Loftus in her new impersonations.

Keith's Theatre.— High-class vaudeville, biograph, 8th regiment.