THE TECH

Published every Thursday during the college year, by students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

STANLEY G. H. FITCH, 1900, Editor in Chief.
I. RAYNE ADAMS, 1902, Assistant Editor in Chief.
PAUL RAYMOND BROOKS, 1900, Secretary.
MORGAN BARNEY, 1900.
C. W. CORbett 1900.
EDWARD H. DAVIS, 1901.
WALTER H. FARMER, 1902.
W. T. ALDRICH, 1901, Art Editor.
C. A. SAWYER, Jr., 1902, Art Editor.

THEODORE W. BRIGHAM, 1900, Business Manager.
ALBERT E. LOMBARD, 1902, Assistant Business Manager.
ARTHUR SMITH MORSE, 1902.

OFFICE HOURS:
Editor in Chief, Monday, 12-1 P.M.
Business Manager, Saturday, 12-1 P.M.

For the benefit of students THE TECH will be pleased to answer all questions and obtain all possible information pertaining to any department of the College.
Contributions are requested from all undergraduates, alumni, and officers of instruction. No anonymous manuscript can be accepted.
Subscription, $2.00 per year, in advance. Single copies, 10 cts. each.

Press of Lounsbery Nicholas & Worth Company.

The apathy of the Senior Class concerning the recent nominations for offices is deplorable. For the majority of cases there was but one candidate for an office. In one instance there was but one nomination, where the Constitution provides for two officers. The election proved of but little more interest than the call for nominations. Many of the men failed to summon energy enough to cast a ballot.

This state of affairs should not be allowed to continue during the year. Unless a decided change takes place, the Class will make a poor showing when it comes to preparing for Class-Day exercises.

The reason for the present lack of interest in Class affairs is probably to be found in the large debt which has hung over the Class since its Freshman year. Although great efforts were made by last year's officers to liquidate the debt, much of it is still unpaid. It is imperative that this be wiped out at once, and to this end, the present officers deserve the hearty support of all 1900 men in whatever measures they may take in this direction.

THE history of our Trophy Room, which is in truth a Trophy Room only in black on white, gives a peculiar example of unproductive management.

We can, perhaps, impress this fact no more deeply than to briefly run over its history. Last year when the mathematical library changed its quarters, the room formerly used for the library was decided upon for a Trophy Room. A committee of upper classmen was formed. This committee shortly gave way to a second, and this in turn was followed by a sub-committee of the Institute Committee into whose hands the matter had been placed. In every case no practical steps towards making the Trophy Room a reality were accomplished.

This briefly is its history; and on considering this The Tech believes that it is high time that something be done of practical value. The Faculty has given the students...