Here is not a photographer in New England who has been more successful than Elmer Chickering, No. 21 West Street, and people who desire to have first-class photographs taken of themselves, or of their friends, should go to this gallery. His success in the business is wonderful. His pictures are admitted to be exact reproductions of the subject, and are remarkable for their clearness and fidelity in detail.
Among his patrons are the leading citizens of the United States, including presidents, governors, mayors and others prominent in official lines, the highest military officers, the most prominent opera singers, the leading actors and actresses.
Fa and near his pictures are known. In Europe as well as America they are highly admired. Mr. Chickering is a host in himself, but with good judgment he has surrounded himself with a corps of operators and assistants in his operating rooms who have no superiors, while in his office is to be found young lady attendants who thoroughly understand how to please patrons, and by their uniform courtesy add much to the popularity of “Chickering Studio.”
