Hollis Street Theatre.— First week of John Drew in "The Second in Command." Complete original production from New York. Engagement for two weeks.

Colonial Theatre.— Positively last week of "Florodora." Next week "Ben Hur," the most impressive dramatic spectacle on the stage.

Tremont Theatre.— Beginning of last two weeks of "King Dodo." It is well worth seeing. Catchy music.

Boston Museum.— "San Toy" closes a successful engagement this week. Next attraction will be Ethel Barrymore in "Captain Jinks," Clyde Fitch's best comedy.

Boston Theatre.— Maurice Grau's company of Metropolitan stars in grand opera. Thursday night, "Magic Flute"; Friday night, "Le Cid"; Saturday, "Manru."

Columbia Theatre.— This theatre reopens with the musical success, "Morocco Bound." Good music and pretty girls.

Bijou Theatre.— Double bill consisting of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pinafore." Good company and good music.

Castle Square Theatre.— Revival of Sardou's great play, "Diplomacy." Next week "Rosedale," by the regular company.

IMPORTANT.
An Immense Reduction Sale
Beginning January 20 and continuing through February we shall MARK DOWN all of our WINTER DOUBLE SOLE GOODS, together with numerous broken and odd lines of Stylish Modern Shape Shoes in Single Soles. This will not be a shop-worn sale of obsolete and undesirable goods, but a general and sweeping reduction of FINE SEASONABLE GOODS. Prices will be marked way down to insure a complete cleaning out to make room for Spring Goods.
