Week Commencing April 7, 1902.

Hollis Street Theatre. Last week of E. H. Sothern in "If I Were King."
Next attraction, Annie Russell in her greatest success, "The Girl and the Judge."

Colonial Theatre. Farewell performances of "Ben Hur." Last three weeks of the most remarkable spectacle ever produced.

Tremont Theatre. Mrs. Fiske presenting Saturday matinee, "Miranda" and Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, "A Doll's House," by Henrik Ibsen.

Boston Theatre. Mrs. Patrick Campbell, supported by Herbert Waring and the entire Royalty Theatre Company, will present on Thursday and Friday evenings, "The Notorious Mrs. Ebbsmith"; Saturday matinee, "Pelleas and Melisande."

Bijou Theatre. Gala week of opera. Thursday and Saturday evening "Martha," Friday evening and Saturday matinee "Faust."

Boston Museum. Last week of Ethel Barrymore in "Captain Jinks." The next attraction at this house will be the great New York and Boston laughing success, "Are You a Mason?"

Columbia Theatre. The magnificent production of "The Girl from Paris" had its first presentation last evening, and judging from the large audience it is safe to say that it will have a most successful run while in Boston.

Castle Square Theatre. "The War of Wealth" will be given the rest of the week. Next week "Hamlet" will be given by the regular company.
