'99. W. S. Newell, XIII., last year assistant to Professor Peabody, is now with the Bath Iron Works, Bath, Me.

'01. Lammot Du Pont, I., draughtsman with the Pencoyd Iron Works, Wissahickon, Pa.

'01. Grace MacLeod, V., teacher of geology and assistant teacher of chemistry and physics, Mt. Hermon School for Boys.

'01. John A. Ross, Jr., XIII., was on Tuesday, Oct. 21, married to Miss Florence True of Salisbury, Mass. Mr. Ross is at present draughtsman for the Government at Seattle, where he and his wife will live, after a short honeymoon.

'01. Frederic H. Bass, XI., instructor in civil engineering, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

'01. L. W. Horne, XIII., and R. S. Littlefield, XIII., are draughting at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, for the Government.

'02. Harold Y. Currey is with the Draper Manufacturing Company at Hopedale, Mass.

'02. E. Le Roy Brainerd is with the Northern Pacific Railroad, at Livingston, Mont.

'02. W. M. Rice, XIII., draughtsman at Erie Basin, Brooklyn, N. Y.

'02. W. O. Teague, XIII., with the Fore River Ship and Engine Company.

A Real Live Sure-enough Sophomore.

Being a Freshman’s Comment to our Cartoon “Isn’t He Cunning!” in a previous issue.

With Profuse Apologies to the Manufacturers, and to the Management of the Lunchroom, as well as to William Morris.

THE “TECH BEVERAGE.”