

THEATRE ATTRactions

Week commencing October 12, 1903.

Tremont Theatre.—“The Yankee Consul” closes its engagement this week. Next week, Grand Opera in English. “La Tosca” will be presented Monday evening.

Majestic Theatre.—Owen Wister's fascinating story of the Wild West, “The Virginian,” will be presented at this playhouse for the last week. Next week, “The Earl of Pawtucket.”

Colonial Theatre.—Jerome Sykes in “The Billionaire,” will end his engagement this week. Next week, Frank Daniels in “The Office Boy.”

Hollis Street Theatre.—Julia Marlowe will end her successful engagement in “The Fools of Nature” this week. Next week, “The Light That Failed.”

Globe Theatre.—Charles Richman in “Captain Barrington” opened a limited engagement this week. The greatest feature of this play is its gorgeous stage settings.

Park Theatre.—Annie Russell in “Mice and Men” opened a limited engagement this week. Miss Russell is one of the greatest favorites on the American stage.

Boston Theatre.—The best New England play, “Quincy Adams Sawyer,” continues to draw large and appreciative audiences. Get your seats in advance.

Castle Square Theatre.—“Lover's Lane” is being presented by the regular company this week. Next week, “Sowing the Wind.”
