

tegrity of that country. Russia will ignore the treaty, and Japan in turn will ignore the Russian note protesting against Japan's alleged breach of international law in the war.

The arbitration tribunal, which has been considering the claims of the blockading powers for preferential treatment of their claims against Venezuela, has decided unanimously that the three blockading powers, Great Britain, Germany and Italy, have a right to a preference of 30 per cent of the customs duties at La Guayra and Puerto Cabello.

GENERAL.

A large fire in Rochester, N. Y., destroyed practically the whole retail dry goods district of the city, with the loss $2,500,000.

Edgar N. Wrightington has been selected as head coach for the Harvard football team for next season. He played half-back for four years, and captained the eleven his last year, and is now an official in many big games.

H. J. Hooper, Dartmouth's famous centre last fall, died of appendicitis at Hanover, N. H. Although in his first year at college, by general consent he was placed on the All-American eleven, and he promised to become one of the greatest centres in the history of the game.

By her victory over Yale last Saturday night at the St. Nicholas rink, New York, Harvard won the Intercollegiate Ice Hockey Championship. Harvard thus not only wins the championship for the year, but permanent possession of the St. Nicholas challenge trophy, which had to be won twice in succession before becoming the property of any college.
