My Dear Friends of the "Tech Show."

Shortly after the closing of school last spring, I received, through a committee of two, a most beautiful loving cup from you all, in evidence of your regard which so surprised and touched me that my feelings simply could not find speech. You were all so scattered at the time that it was impossible for me to express my thanks to each one of you, and even now I know of no other (and no better) way of reaching you all than through our dear, mutual friend, THE TECH.

Please accept my heartfelt thanks and appreciation of your beautiful gift and the kind words inscribed upon it which find an echo in the warmest corner of the heart of

Yours always,

JANET EDMONDSON WALKER.

Technique '06, offers a prize of five dollars ($5.00) for the best poem or short article handed in before Jan. 1, 1905. Poems not to be over fifty lines, nor articles over 700 words in length. Preferably, both should be comic, and of interest to Tech men in general.

For further particulars, leave word at Cage for "Prize Editor," Technique '06.

A Technique is also offered as a prize for the five best grinds handed in.

Only four started in the 120-yd hurdle, so only one heat was necessary. The finish was very close. Ovington, '05, who started scratch, ran a good race, and was only one yard behind Farrington, '05.

Of the entries in the 220-yard low hurdles, only four started. The event was sharply contested. Captain Lindsly held the lead from start to finish. Buckingham, '06, fell within fifty yards from the finish, leaving Ovington and Albro to contest second and third places.

The hammer throw had three entries. The men had trouble keeping the hammer from the ground before the throw. Practice should eliminate this however. Lindsly showed good form in his throw except for this trouble.

Six men contested in the shot put. Considering that this is the beginning of the season and the men have not had much opportunity to train, the work was very good.

The high-jump was as good as could be expected with a soft take-off. Farrington, '05, showed some of his old-time form by a jump of 5 feet 5 1/2 inches, but Guernsey's handicap won first place. Most of the men showed good form, and there ought to be good material in this event next spring.

The pole vault dragged somewhat considering that only three were entered. Lack of training was very noticeable. Ovington and Burleigh tied for first place.

The discus-throw developed nothing very interesting. Lindsly easily won from his two competitors by a throw of 95 feet 1 inch. The throws were all short.

A rather bad showing was made in the broad jump, none of the men making more than 18 feet, actual jump. All had trouble on the take-off. Summary:

100-yard Dash.
 First Heat—Wellington, '08, 6 yds; Richards, '07, 2 yds. Second Heat—Gibbons, '06, 3 yds; Todd, '08, 4 yds. Third Heat—Sheldon, '06, 5 yds; Thomas, '07, 4 yds. Fourth Heat—Griffin, '06, 6 yds; Friedman, '08, 5 yds. Fifth Heat—Leavell, '07, 4 yds. Howe, '06, 3 yds.

Semi-Finals.
 First Heat—1st. Richards, '07, 2 yds. 2d. Wellington, '08, 6 yds. 3d. Sheldon, '06, 5 yds. Second Heat—1st. Leavell, '07, 4 yds. 2d. Friedman, '08, 5 yds. 3d. Thomas, '07, 4 yds.

There is absolutely no Cigarette to compare to the in smoothness, aroma and delicacy. It appeals to the "educated," not to the "hoi polloi." Please give it a trial. Made in three numbers.
