Park Theatre.

Otis Skinner is the reigning favorite this week, presenting his entirely new drama from the French of Jean Richepin, entitled "The Harvester." It is a powerful love romance of French Canadian life, and Mr. Skinner's character is a notable impersonation of dramatic strength.

Rolles Street Theatre.

This is positively the last week of the stay of William Gillette in this city, and after next Saturday night "The Admireble Crichton" will be a memory of the past. It is J. M. Barrie's most delightful bit of French romantic comedy.

Colonial Theatre.

Richard Mansfield's strong programme for his farewell week is as follows: "Richard III," Monday and Saturday; "A Parisian Romance," Tuesday; "Beauty Brunnel," Wednesday and Thursday matinees; "Ivan the Terrible," Thursday; "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," Friday; "The Merchant of Venice," Saturday matinees.

Tremont Theatre.

The coming week will be the last of Henrietta Crosman's engagement in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," and there will be a special matinee Thursday, Thanksgiving Day. The Crosman engagement has been one of the most successful of a very brilliant season.

The Technology Review
A QUARTERLY MAGAZINE DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Published by the Association of Class Secretaries
63 Newbury Street, Boston
The Review aims to develop closer relations among Institute men, and to stimulate their interest in the work of the College.

It is to no one an engineering magazine, but deals broadly with the problems of Technological Education and the responsibilities of the professional man.

The Technology Review is published during January, April, July and October. Communications should be addressed to The Technology Review, 63 Newbury Street, Boston, Mass.

Subscriptions, One Dollar a Year Single Copies, Thirty-Five Cents
Volumes 1, III., IV., and V., singly bound in hard covers, can be had separately at $2.00 each; or will be exchanged for unbound sets, provided they are in good condition, at 75 cents each. (Sent by mail, postages extra.)
