and he said that, in clearing the street, the crowd in front of him was not fighting, and could not go back because of pressure from behind. He saw no attempt to make any arrest, as no individual act came under his notice which seemed to warrant an arrest. Sergeant Guard, one of the mounted officers, testified that he saw none of the mounted police ride on the sidewalk, and saw no charge made by them.

Testimony was given by several other officers, all of whom said that they did not strike any students, did not see any policemen strike students, and could not account for the wounds received by eighty-seven of Hotel Brunswick on the night of December 2.

Notice.

The Lunch Room will not close on Wednesday, December 7.

The Society of Arts.

There is absolutely no Cigarette to compare to the "MENTOR" in smoothness, aroma and delicacy. It appeals to the "educated," not to the "hoi polloi." Please give it a trial. Made in three numbers.
