has sought from its foundation to broaden and deepen the education which it gives, although hampered at times by lack of funds; that, accordingly, Alumni—even in recent years—may not realize the extent of gradual improvement; that many other elements than "resources" are involved in the questions raised; and that Institute work in general studies is of exceptional quality and student relations are founded on a broadly democratic basis of Tech spirit.

In regard to the Technology Fund, it was shown that the present attitude of the Committee, as repeatedly expressed, is that the combination plan can be more surely settled on educational grounds if it is shown that the Institute is not compelled to seek combination through poverty.

An account of the Alumni procedure will be given in a later issue.

Dr. Gill will give four lectures on "Gas and Fuel Analysis for Engineers" in Room 29, Walker, from 4 to 6, on December 18, 14, 16 and 18.

Several interesting photographs of sewage filter beds, situated in different parts of the state, are on exhibition in Room 41, Eng. B.
