GEORGE W. BROWN
Merchant Tailor
110 TREMONT STREET

Makes up-to-date students' clothes at very reasonable prices.

Suits and Overcoats from $35

This is the best time of the ENTIRE YEAR to have your EIGHT DRESSES, Tuxedo, or Double-Breasted Frock made. We make a specialty of these garments and make Special Prices during the slack season. Then again, we have an extra large assortment at this time, and the Tailor always makes these clothes when not rushed with work and we are willing to figure a little closer to keep our help busy, snap in and let us show them to you. And oblige.

Yours Respectfully,

FACULTY NOTICES.

Theoretical Electricity.
Problem 27 is due, corrected, today. Students will please procure copies of Franklin and Williamson's "Alternating Currents," to be obtained at Maclellan's.

Members of Cadet Battalion are requested to look over new gun numbers and seat numbers posted on Bulletin Board.

Colonial Theatre.
William H. Crane gives a notable impersonation of the modern Frenchman, leader in the speculative and monetary world, in his presentation of "Business is Business." This made a great impression on the Paris stage at the Comedie Francaise, and is one of the notable importations given to American theatres. With Mr. Crane as star and with Charles Frohman's excellent company "Business is Business," makes a rare artistic treat.

Hollis Street Theatre.
This is positively the last week of the notable engagement of E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe in Shakespearean plays under the management of Clyde Fitch. A particularly varied program has been provided, with "Romeo and Juliet," on Monday, Thursday and Friday evenings, and Saturday matinee. "Much Ado About Nothing," Wednesday and Saturday evenings and "Hamlet," special Wednesday matinee and Thursday evening.

Park Theatre.
Amelia Bingham continues to attract brilliant and delighted audiences with Clyde Fitch's sparkling comedy, "The Frisky Mrs. Johnson," which is repeating here the hit that it made in New York. The title role is played by Miss Bingham at her best and she has the support of an admirable comedy company including Henry Woodruff, John Flood and other favorites.

Tremont Theatre.
Boston players are warm in their approval of George Ade's "The County Chairman," which has instantly leaped into favor. Macklyn Arbuckle, as Jim Hackler, the rugged, good-hearted politician, and Willis P. Sweatnam's clever delineation of the negro voter, are enthusiastically received by crowded houses.
