Hollis Street Theatre.

Every college boy in town will make his headquarters where "The Rogers Brothers in Paris" is to be found. The great popularity of these German comedians promises to be vastly increased by their new vaudeville farce, which was so well received in New York. The clever comedians have new songs and parodies, and a large aggregation of wonderfully pretty girls will lend their charm to the scenes of Merriment.

Colonial Theatre.

N. C. Goodwin, always a favorite, should be as much as ever with his newest comedy entitled "The Unraver." It comes here straight from a long and successful engagement at the Knickerbocker Theatre in New York. Thee everybody called it a Goodwin triumph in every sense. He has a splendid company, and the production will be especially rich in every detail.

Park Theatre.

Henry Miller, whose engagements in recent years have been in romantic plays, comes back with a sparkling comedy, equally successful in London, New York and San Francisco.

Critics call "Joseph Entangled", the best work from the pen of Henry Arthur Jones, and it will be a treat to see Mr. Miller in this piece supported by the original company headed by the beautiful Hilda Spong.

The County Chairman.

The continued success of George Ade's "County Chairman," at the Tremont Theatre is proof positive that the play going public are fond of laughter and sentiment. As a production "The County Chairman," is extremely large, and the hundred people who are seen in the moving pictures of the play bospoke more than enough to stage management. On Christmas day a special matinee will be given.

Banjo Club.

Next meeting of Banjo Club, Monday, Jan. 2, 1905.
