of the prices being raised for the occasion is absurd, when the ticket was presented after the purvale has been made.

The Board is not recompensed in any way; their work is entirely without pay; they are doing all they can to help the Society along and to make a better showing each successive year. They merely ask deserving co-operation in the purchase of co-operative tickets, in the use of them when patronizing affiliated tradesmen and in the support which should be given in the sale of material at the booths.

Mr. Harry L. Grant, XIII, '01, announces that he severs his connection with the New York Shipbuilding Co. of Camden, N. J., to take the position of assistant to the general manager of the Western Electric Co., headquarters at Chicago.
