Walker Club Elections.

At the Walker Club meeting Friday afternoon the following men were elected to membership: W. Green, '05, E. T. Steele, 2d, '05, K. H. Diasque, '06, and M. E. Vinton, Jr., '06. After the business meeting the trials for the debate with the Civic Club were held. As a result C. C. Curtis, '05, S. A. Greeley, '05, and C. C. Loring, '06, were chosen to form the team.

Hollis Street Theatre.

There has been a lively sale at the box office of the Hollis St. indicating the growing interests in the production of "The Winter's Tale." Miss Allen is especially a Boston favorite, for this the home of her girlhood. She appears in the dual characters of Hermione and Perdita. She has given the play an especially strong company.

Colonial Theatre.

William Parsonswain's stay in Boston is positively limited to this week, and there will be no chance of an extension of the season on account of the long tour which has been booked for "Letty." The advance sale for the coming week is exceedingly large, and there is every indication that this will be one of the notable events of the season at the Colonial.

Park Theatre.

Annie Russell will open her second week with a new performance of "Brother Jacques." This play from the French will hold the local stage for the coming week only. For the third and last week an entirely new drama by J. Zangwill, entitled "Jiminy, the Carrier," will be offered.

Tremont Theatre.

Lew Dockstader and his great minstrel company will be the attraction at the Tremont to-night. This year's production from the opening part to the final curtain will be entirely new and it will contain many original novelties. The entire performance will be given in blackface.

Trials for Civic Club debating team are to be held at the Union this evening.
