Municipal Sanitation.
The class in Municipal Sanitation will leave the North Station for Lawrence at 1:15 p.m., Thursday, February 24. These attending Professor Sedgwick's lectures in "Sanitary Science" from 12 to 1, will be excused at 12:45.

The members of the class can meet on the train and purchase trip tickets of me on the train.

C. E. A. WINSLOW.

Rollis St. Theatre.
Viola Allen is in the last week of her successful engagement, after fully establishing herself as the finest Shakespearean actress on the American stage. A varied programme will mark her closing nights here. On Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings "Twelfth Night," At all other performances, including the special holiday matinee, "The Winter's Tale" will be the bill.

Colonial Theatre.
Sir Charles Vyseham is in the opening nights of his Boston engagement and is receiving a most enthusiastic greeting on the occasion of his first visit here in a long time. His company is headed by Miss Mary Moore, and every play is given exactly the same as in London. "David Garrick" will be given the first half of the week and "Mrs. Gorringe's Necklace" will finish the week.

Park Theatre.
Annie Russell makes a change of bill for the last week of her stay here. "Jinny the Carrier," by Israel Zangwill, will give Miss Russell a new character to essay—the carrier girl in an English village—and the type of life will be watched with the same attention as if it had a counterpart on this side of the Atlantic.

Tremont Theatre.
The success of Low Dockstader's engagement at the Tremont Theatre is not so wonderful as it might seem to one who has not attended a performance, for the audiences that nightly pack the house are kept in a roar of laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain. This is the last week.
