This is the best time of the entire year for you to have your full dress, tuxedo, or double-breasted frock suit made. We make a specialty of these garments and make special prices during the slack season. Then again, we have an extra large assortment at this time, and the tailors always make their work better when not rushed with work and we are willing to figure a little closer to keep our help busy.

Hollie St. Theatre.
Maxine Elliott is in her last week with Clyde Fitch's brilliant drama of fashionable life in New York, "Her Own Way," and there is no question whatever about the tremendous personal success which she has made here. The audiences are just as large and as enthusiastic as they were a year ago on the occasion of her first visit here as a star.

Park Theatre.
Charles Haytroy is in his last week at the Park Theatre and it is quite probable that Boston will never again have a chance to see this brilliant English actor in "A Message from Mars," which has been fully duplicating the remarkable triumph which it made here two years ago.

Colonial Theatre.
"Humpty Dumpty" is certainly the most stupendous production brought to America from Drury Lane in London, and Klaw and Erlanger have provided a Boston sensation by sending it here.

Tremont Theatre.
The Augustin Daly Company, whose success in "A Country Girl" is one of the pleasant remembrances of last season, will begin a fortnight's engagement at the Tremont Theatre tonight, presenting a musical play new to Boston, "The Cingales, or Sunny Ceylon."
