SPRING OPENING

A. H. MATZ & CO.,

32 HUNTINGTON AVENUE

COPLEY SQUARE.

Hollis St. Theatre.

Mande Adams and "The Little Minister" will be in the presence of friends at the Hollis Street tonight. This charming actress has always been one of the greatest favorites to appear on the local stage, and no play with which she has been identified has begun to compare in popularity with J. M. Barrie's comedy, "The Little Minister."

Colonial Theatre.

"Humpty Dumpty" has established itself on the record-breaking list at the Colonial. The figures for the first week of the Klaw and Erlanger spectacle, which comes to a conclusion tonight, will be found to surpass those of any other production which the enterprising managers have ever given on the local stage.

Majestic Theatre.

The second week of the engagement of the spectacular musical merriment "The Filibuster" will begin tonight at the Majestic. There are plenty of pretty girls, handsome costumes, catchy music, bright lines and a strong cast of principals headed by Louise Gunning and Albert Mahar.

Tremont Theatre.

Rarely have audiences been so pleasantly taken by surprise as those which have assembled at the Tremont Theatre to see "The Cingalee." Apart from its spectacular effects, "The Cingalee" may be voted one of the most successful of musical comedies. The score is full of tuneful melodies.

Globe Theatre.

Williams & Walker with their excellent company are in their last week. These two clever stars have lost none of that charm or ability to entertain since they left us to show the theatre-goers of England what real colored comedy consisted of; they have improved, like good wine, with age.

I WISH to communicate with young men that could accompany me next summer to the Klondike; I spent last summer there and own valuable interests; I can offer the opportunity of a lifetime to the right young men; they must furnish best of references, be physically robust and not afraid of labor, and have some money to invest.
