Noyes Bros.
Washington and Summer Streets, Boston, U. S. A.

In Vienna the foremost trade school has planned to add to its curriculum, Courses in Automobilizing. One course is to be purely technical. Another is designed to qualify men to some extent on the mechanical side, but especially to fit them to become chauffeurs by teaching them the laws regulating automobilizing in the different countries.

Majestic Theatre.
"The Millionaire," with its large chorus of pretty girls and tuneful music, continues to draw large crowds at the Majestic. The show given by a professional company has much improved in the dancing, fun and general ensemble. Misses Louise Gunning, Ethel Johnson, and Edna Fassett are assisted by such comedians as Albert Malan and W. D. Tredenick.

Globe Theatre.
This week's offering at the Globe is a new play by Mr. Edmund Daly, "Pals," a play which features Mr. James J. Corbett as a young and well-to-do Kentuckian, and gives him a chance to show his particular talent as an actor. The play is in four acts with many pictorial, and sensational mechanical effects. Mr. Corbett is supported by such actors as Mr. Hal Davis and Miss Inez Macanloy.
