At Syracuse University last week the president made the announcement at chapel (they still hold chapel as it is well attended) that Mr. Carnegie had given $150,000 for a new library building, and that the $150,000 endowment to secure the gift was in sight. A few days later he made the announcement that a trustee would fit up a stadium at a cost of $150,000. The athletic field backs up into a sloping hill, and the location is ideal for the cement seats to be used.
