1906 Tech Reunion.
year, in all its details, the Tech Reunion of 1906. Such gatherings should be held only at intervals of five or ten years, when men at a distance will make unusual effort to be present. Certain features of the Reunion, however, may well bear repetition, notably the class dinners, and the class spreads on the afternoon of graduation day and the general participation on that evening of alumni and undergraduates with their friends in the "Tech Night Pop Concert." Let us hope that Technology men will do their part in establishing permanently the custom so happily inaugurated at the first Tech Reunion of a general observance of Commencement by the alumni.

John Tobin has been chosen manager of the 1908 Football Team for next year.
