BOSTON'S NEW STORE

Restaurant

Our magnificent restaurant will prove one of the greatest of attractions to Tech men. It is one of the few places where a lady may be taken for a luncheon before the matinee, and in one part smoking is permitted.

Strong and Artistic Furnishings for the Tech Man's Room

Whether you have to fit out your room complete or are planning to add a few new bits to last year's equipment, you will find that the New Store can show you carefully made, well-designed furniture, rugs, carpets and hangings at prices way below what exclusive stores must ask.

Every bit of our stock has been brought to Boston since Graduation, everything is as new as it can be, the furniture is largely of the famous Grand Rapids make, the rugs and carpets are selected by experts, and the markets of America, Europe and Asia were ransacked to bring to this city the newest and best of decorations. Solid and ready to stand rough usage is what the college room demands; that is just what we want to show you.

Furniture

[Fourth Floor]

The entire fourth floor is devoted to the finest display of new furniture that can be wished for. The Mission chairs and couches alone are worth a visit to the store. This is an especially strong design for the college room as it seems built especially to stand the rough treatment that it is bound to suffer. We have big, roomy arm chairs, just the thing to draw up to the fire for a quiet smoke. There are hundreds of tables, from dull mahogany to plain pine; brass, iron and wooden beds; bureaus, shaving stands and wash stands; hat trees, smoking sets and shoe boxes; lounges, couches and couch beds. Not only a few styles of each but an infinite variety from which the most particular can make a satisfactory choice.

We can fit any purse. If you room in the most exclusive flat house we can give you the richest of finishes and the most delicate texture while for the man who works his way we have inexpensive lines, but each table, chair or couch is made solidly and well and will outlast the stiffest and longest college career.

Rugs, Carpets and Hangings' Contract Department

[Third Floor]

A bright, cheery rug is absolutely essential to the comfort of the average college quarters. In our rug department we carry every kind, from tiny domestics to the most superb and rich creations of Eastern looms those antique beauties made years before rug making degenerated from an art to a trade. One of the favorites will be the Yaprack, a replica of the first rugs imported to America. It is a gorgeous affair in red and black—a man's rug if ever one was made.

Our carpets are of the very latest weaves and colorings, and from our vast stock you can match any color scheme that you may plan for. If you prefer matings, some of the finest of American and Japanese work is at hand to choose from. Portieres and hangings of all kinds are in the upholstery section of this floor, together with couch covers and screens and in the adjacent art department are the newest sofa pillows and table coverings. Pictures and art prints are ready for hanging and the choicest of bric-a-brac is displayed in the basement.

[Third Floor]

Many an Institute will prefer to have his room fitted up for him. This we are prepared to do, furnishing every article. At the contract office, callers are always welcome and we are ready to make estimates, placing you under no obligations whatever. It is an immense relief to many to feel that the details of his "housefurnishing" can be taken care of by others. We prepare and install everything that a man may need in the way of furniture, upholstery, carpets, hangings, bed-clothes, and if he wishes it, an entire outfit from window-seat to soap.

The work is in charge of a man long trained to this service, an expert decorator and a connoisseur in all pertaining to furniture. For years he has done contract furnishing for Harvard students and no man in the country is better acquainted with their needs and ways. He knows what the college man must have and we have the stock to fill the bill. Do not hesitate to ask for figures, you will find that the Siegel system of buying gives you the benefit of wholesale prices.
