SOPHOMORE FOOTBALL PRACTICE.

Twelve men responded to Capt. Glover's call for football candidates Saturday afternoon at Tech Field. The coach Harry Ball appeared discouraged with the small number of men at work, and put them through light preliminary practice. Those that reported were: Glover, Barnes, Putnam, Smith, Heilman, H. Allen, M. Allen, of last year's team, and Brown, Sewell, Shreveport and Hall.

Captain Glover and Coach Ball wish it said that they are discouraged over the outlook and earnestly desire that a large number of candidates will report.

FRESHMEN DINNER.

to a high pitch of enthusiasm. He explained what Field Day is, and gave the list of events that would come off on November 11, next. He then said that fellows should come out first, because it is "nasty" to loose, second, because it is the duty to the class, third, because it is an advantage to the students and lastly, because a man loses his self respect if he does not come out. The evening was then closed by cheers and songs. Altogether the whole dinner went off very well, and a good many men had to be turned away at the door for lack of accommodations.
