versity, on "Certain Prevalent Nervous Derangements and the Outlook for their Prevention." Mondays and Thursdays, at 8 P.M., beginning Mar. 12.
 The lectures are free and the distribution of tickets for them is as in previous years. Application should be made by mail two days in advance, to Professor W. T. Sedgwick, of the Institute, at address 491 Boylston Street. A stamped, addressed envelope must be enclosed. To each applicant, one ticket admitting to the first lecture of each course will be sent, which ticket may be exchanged before entering the hall, for tickets for that entire course. No tickets will be distributed at the Cadets' armory. The janitor may give out any extra tickets after a course has started, but before the beginning tickets can be obtained only by a formal mailed application, as stated above.
