EXETER CLUB SMOKER.

The Exeter Club held its first smoker of the year at the Union, Friday evening at 7.30. The smoker was the occasion of initiation of Freshmen into the club. An informal spread was served in the small room, after which the members adjourned to the big room and looked over the candidates. The candidates sang and danced and did stunts. One of the most noteworthy stunts was a dissertation by Clark, '09, on the following question: "If a sloop is a sister to a yacht, what is the relation of a 'horse's-neck' to a pony of brandy?" Scharff, '09, was called upon to "wrestle with temptation" and acquitted himself creditably, while Godfrey in his imitation of "scrambling like an egg" was inimitable.

After the initiation Prof. Richards addressed the new members and welcomed them to the club.

The evening closed with singing of Exeter and Tech songs and giving Exeter and Tech cheers.

CHESS CLUB.

The Chess Club held its second meeting in 11 Rogers on Saturday afternoon. About twenty men were present. The motion was passed that the Technology Chess Club join the Metropolitan Chess League. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: president, Swett, '07; secretary, F. W. Morrill, '07; members of the executive committee, Morrill, '09, Morey, '06, and Newton, '06. Mr. Morey reported on the Metropolitan League.
