To THE EDITOR.-Dear Sir:

In reply to your editorial of Friday we submit the following:
The Globe Theatre asked $400 for having last year's Tech Night. This year they positively refused to consider a repetition of this affair.

It is most unfair for such a season of the year to place the Freshmen in a position of embarrassment.

The management of the Globe, the Columbia, the Park, etc., are all good places, but the Columbia, the Globe, the Park, and the Tech Theatre, are entirely different places.

In the Globe, the Columbia, and the Park there is an organization of the audience. They know what the management of the house will do.

One year the Columbia and the Globe offered to give Tech Night at the Park.

Offices of Lodges, etc., are called to the fact that the Copley Square Hotel has exceptionally high meals.
