AT THE THEATRES.
Tremont Theatre.
 This is the record week of Grand Opera at the Tremont Theatre. Last week the house was crowded, and much enthusiasm was shown at every performance. Tonight, "Val-kyrie" will be rendered, and during the rest of the week, "La Boheme," "Faust," "Aida," "Lohengrin" and "Rigolette" will be played. There will be changes in the cast in a number of instances, Madame Serena having the role of Mimi in "La Boheme," Misses Remnyson and Albright singing in "Aida," Mr. Sheehan playing in "Faust," and Miss Easton again appearing in "Rigolette."

Majestic Theatre.
 "As Ye Sow" commences its fifth week at the Majestic Theatre tonight. The first month has achieved a popularity for this drama that has been unsurpassed in a decade by a rural drama, and the advance sale of seats seems to indicate that the coming month will be but a repetition of the first. At the Tuesday, election day, evening performance, the returns from New York and Massachusetts will be read between the acts and as a private direct wire has been secured patrons will be kept informed of the latest news.

1908 RELAY TEAM.— Practice every afternoon at Charlesbank Gym. It is very necessary that the men turn out regularly.

FENCING.
 The M. I. T. Fencing Association held its first meeting of the year in 11 Rogers, on last Friday, at 1 o'clock. The officers elected for the ensuing year were. J. Lage, chairman; E. M. Berliner, secretary; and L. Fournon, coach. It was not considered necessary to have a treasurer, since the manager of the team has charge of all the finances of the association. No elaborate constitution was drawn up, the association being too small at present to need one, but it was decided to send a circular letter to all the New England colleges with a view to forming a local fencing league. Chairman Lage announced that no real work will be undertaken with the varsity until the fall sports are over. A general discussion of the present condition and necessities of the association led to a number of proposed changes.
