ROUND TABLE DINNER.
The Round Table held its first dinner at the Westminster Hotel Saturday evening. All of the members, together with a large number of old members, were present. After the dinner a reception was given to twenty-five Freshmen, who had been especially invited to be present. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

The Harvard Seniors won the first-class football game when the Harvard University played at Tech Friday afternoon, defeated the Seniors, 8 to 0. Dignowity played a star game for 1906. The freshmen and sophomores will meet today. Later in the week the winner of this match and the Seniors will play for the inter-class championship.

At a meet between the Harvard Gun Club and a picked team from the Boston Gun Club, on Soldiers Field Friday afternoon, the Harvard team won by a score of 194-187. The best score of the day was 492 out of a possible 589 birds, which was won by Wicker, Law.

CASTLE SQUARE Theatre.
The production of "Diplomacy" at the Castle Square Theatre this week brings another Sardou play before the Boston public. Only a few weeks ago his "Sardou" was cordially and enthusiastically received, and now his "Diplomacy" will show another phase of the great Frenchman's talent. "Diplomacy" is a highly exciting dream of love and political intrigue, and its successive scenes develop a plot that keeps the audience in a constant state of suspense. The central character is a gifted adventurer in the service of the Russian Government, and it requires the united action of almost the entire dramatic personage to thwart his evil purposes.

The Technology Review
A QUARTERLY MAGAZINE DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
And Published by the Association of Class Secretaries
82 NEWBURY STREET, BOSTON

The Review aims to develop closer relations among Institute men, and to stimulate their interest in the work of the College.

It is in no sense an engineering magazine, but deals broadly with the problems of Technological Education and the responsibilities of the professional man.
