AT THE THEATRES.
Castle Square Theatre.
Of all the plays made from books during the past quarter century, "The Prisoner of Zenda" is undoubtedly the most popular. It is now some ten years since E. H.
Southen first appeared as the merry Englishman and his princely double, and the play during that period has been almost constantly before the public. At the Castle Square next week it will be handsomely staged with attractive scenery and costumes, and its lengthy list of dramatic personae will necessitate the engagement of many extra players in addition to the regular stock company. The dual role of Rudolf Ras-sembly and the prince will be played by John Craig, and as the Princess Flavia, Little Kembie may be expected to give one of her most charming impersonations.

Tremont Theatre.
"The County Chairman," George Ade's clever pictorial comedy, which has but one week to run at the Tremont Theatre, has come into its own as a genuine American play.
Its seasons have been marked by crowded houses, which welcomed with hearty laughter the many clever and witty sayings, dull situations and humorous episodes which George Ade has cleverly framed together under the above title. No play has been so widely discussed for many a season, and its entertaining features need no bell-ringer to advertise it.
It is a matter of regret to a vast number of playgoers in Boston and vicinity that the present engagement is so brief.

TECH ORCHESTRA.

Technology Orchestra have been finally chosen from among the candidates. There are fifteen members

Hall, C. A., 08, Grasharg, 09, Hammer, 08, Donnette, 07, Chart, C.W., 08, Willis, 08, leader, and Gaeggerng, 08, manager. The rehearsals will be held on Mondays and Tuesdays at 4.15 in the Union.
