AT THE THEATRES.

Tremont Theatre:
Mrs. Fiske and the Manhattan Company begin this evening at the Tremont Theatre a three weeks' engagement in C. S. McAllan's drama, "Leash Kleschea." No dramatic offering of the season equals in importance the appearance of this distinguished actress in the most popular play of her career. It is Mrs. Fiske's first appearance in Boston in three years. She and the company come hereafter at this time to play for five months at their New York theatre, the Manhattan. "Leash Kleschea" is one of the most successful dramas the American stage has known. It is modern, full of action and incident, and absorbing in story.
