MUSICAL CLUBS MAKE HIT.

The Winter Concert and Dance is an Exceptional Success.

The annual Winter Concert and Dance of the Musical Clubs, held Wednesday evening in the New Century Building, was by far the most successful and enjoyable the clubs have ever given. There were over six hundred people present at the concert and two hundred of those remained for the dance.

The matrons were Mrs. Peter Schwamb, Mrs. Herb E. Clifford, Mrs. Arthur G. Roland, and Mrs. Frank P. McKibben.

The concert hall was decorated with flags furnished by A. H. Tashjian, '07, and the dance hall was strung with Japanese lanterns.

The program of the concert was a well selected one, and the clubs showed the hard practicing they have been doing by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Banjo Club played a number of lively songs, well adapted to their purpose. The Glee Club made a great hit with its songs, which were well rendered. At the conclusion of the Glee Club's last number, "Tech Forever," R. E. Keyes, '07, and F. F. Bullard, '08, were exalted to the tone for their class, one finishing second, and the other third. The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The cheering often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The dancing often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The ballet was the last item on the program, and the two Freshmen who entered put on a dance by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Winter Concert and Dance of the Musical Clubs, held Wednesday evening in the New Century Building, was by far the most successful and enjoyable the clubs have ever given. There were over six hundred people present at the concert and two hundred of those remained for the dance.

The matrons were Mrs. Peter Schwamb, Mrs. Herb E. Clifford, Mrs. Arthur G. Roland, and Mrs. Frank P. McKibben.

The concert hall was decorated with flags furnished by A. H. Tashjian, '07, and the dance hall was strung with Japanese lanterns.

The program of the concert was a well selected one, and the clubs showed the hard practicing they have been doing by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Banjo Club played a number of lively songs, well adapted to their purpose. The Glee Club made a great hit with its songs, which were well rendered. At the conclusion of the Glee Club's last number, "Tech Forever," R. E. Keyes, '07, and F. F. Bullard, '08, were exalted to the tone for their class, one finishing second, and the other third. The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The dancing often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The dancing often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The ballet was the last item on the program, and the two Freshmen who entered put on a dance by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Winter Concert and Dance of the Musical Clubs, held Wednesday evening in the New Century Building, was by far the most successful and enjoyable the clubs have ever given. There were over six hundred people present at the concert and two hundred of those remained for the dance.

The matrons were Mrs. Peter Schwamb, Mrs. Herb E. Clifford, Mrs. Arthur G. Roland, and Mrs. Frank P. McKibben.

The concert hall was decorated with flags furnished by A. H. Tashjian, '07, and the dance hall was strung with Japanese lanterns.

The program of the concert was a well selected one, and the clubs showed the hard practicing they have been doing by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Banjo Club played a number of lively songs, well adapted to their purpose. The Glee Club made a great hit with its songs, which were well rendered. At the conclusion of the Glee Club's last number, "Tech Forever," R. E. Keyes, '07, and F. F. Bullard, '08, were exalted to the tone for their class, one finishing second, and the other third. The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The dancing often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The ballet was the last item on the program, and the two Freshmen who entered put on a dance by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Winter Concert and Dance of the Musical Clubs, held Wednesday evening in the New Century Building, was by far the most successful and enjoyable the clubs have ever given. There were over six hundred people present at the concert and two hundred of those remained for the dance.

The matrons were Mrs. Peter Schwamb, Mrs. Herb E. Clifford, Mrs. Arthur G. Roland, and Mrs. Frank P. McKibben.

The concert hall was decorated with flags furnished by A. H. Tashjian, '07, and the dance hall was strung with Japanese lanterns.

The program of the concert was a well selected one, and the clubs showed the hard practicing they have been doing by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Banjo Club played a number of lively songs, well adapted to their purpose. The Glee Club made a great hit with its songs, which were well rendered. At the conclusion of the Glee Club's last number, "Tech Forever," R. E. Keyes, '07, and F. F. Bullard, '08, were exalted to the tone for their class, one finishing second, and the other third. The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The dancing often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The ballet was the last item on the program, and the two Freshmen who entered put on a dance by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Winter Concert and Dance of the Musical Clubs, held Wednesday evening in the New Century Building, was by far the most successful and enjoyable the clubs have ever given. There were over six hundred people present at the concert and two hundred of those remained for the dance.

The matrons were Mrs. Peter Schwamb, Mrs. Herb E. Clifford, Mrs. Arthur G. Roland, and Mrs. Frank P. McKibben.

The concert hall was decorated with flags furnished by A. H. Tashjian, '07, and the dance hall was strung with Japanese lanterns.

The program of the concert was a well selected one, and the clubs showed the hard practicing they have been doing by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Banjo Club played a number of lively songs, well adapted to their purpose. The Glee Club made a great hit with its songs, which were well rendered. At the conclusion of the Glee Club's last number, "Tech Forever," R. E. Keyes, '07, and F. F. Bullard, '08, were exalted to the tone for their class, one finishing second, and the other third. The audience was very small in numbers, but very large in enthusiasm. The dancing often did much to help the vanished numbers.

The ballet was the last item on the program, and the two Freshmen who entered put on a dance by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.

The Winter Concert and Dance of the Musical Clubs, held Wednesday evening in the New Century Building, was by far the most successful and enjoyable the clubs have ever given. There were over six hundred people present at the concert and two hundred of those remained for the dance.

The matrons were Mrs. Peter Schwamb, Mrs. Herb E. Clifford, Mrs. Arthur G. Roland, and Mrs. Frank P. McKibben.

The concert hall was decorated with flags furnished by A. H. Tashjian, '07, and the dance hall was strung with Japanese lanterns.

The program of the concert was a well selected one, and the clubs showed the hard practicing they have been doing by the excellent manner in which they rendered their numbers.