AT THE THEATRES.
Tremont Theatre.

Raymond Hitchcock burst forth in a blaze of glory at the Tremont Theatre at the Christmas matinee, the occasion being the first performance in Boston of Richard Harding Davis' latest work, "The Galloper." Manager H. W. Savage has given the Davis farce a production of scenic splendor, and he has likewise surrounded Raymond Hitchcock with one of the most notable of companies. The action of "The Galloper" is set forth in three acts. The first act takes place in a hotel at Athens, the second shows the dock at Athens, where the war correspondents embark to the scene of action. The third act shows the Turkish camp in the Volo mountains.

Castle Square Theatre.

The promise of a Dickens drama at the Castle Square Theatre has aroused no little curiosity and expectation. This week that promise, made at the opening of the present season by the Boston Stage Society, will be fulfilled with the production of "Oliver Twist" being among the most popular of all the Dickens stories. It will be produced at the Castle Square in a new version by Comyns Carr, written especially for Dearborn Tree and presented by him with great success at his theatre in London.
