In answer to many questions as to the difference between the titles professor and doctor, The Tech wishes the difference between the titles professor and doctor, THE TECH wishes the difference between the titles professor and doctor.

In charge of this issue: E. W. James, Editor-in-Chief.

The Tech Show. The Tech Show does its life that the Tech Show does. Its ties occupy the place in our college life that has been done, the chances of a run Bowdoin, each man running 390 yards, the years is growing more prominent indoors and society. The influence in bringing the old system of entering has been changed so that those who have entered are obliged to compete. More training has been done than ever before and Technology should make a very powerful in the pulpit. The members of the Technology Club, composed of alumni of the Institute who are residents of New York, held their 11th Annual Dinner at the Arts' Club in New York City last Saturday, with Alexander McKim, '86, president of the club, in the chair. The speakers were Walter S. Logan and W. M. Ivins. Mr. Logan spoke on "The Party in Municipal Government."
