FENCING MEET TONIGHT.

Tech fences Columbia and Harvard at the Gym.

The varsity fencing team will have its first host, Harvard, and Columbia, and will be as close and exciting as was its first tournament this evening handily. IIe showed himself to be in fine condition. Lage took part June, and whose loss would be keenly great ease, showing himself to be a man who is to fill Henry's place. a steady, consistent fighter and it is MacLeod's third year on the var-team wonderfully. Tyng has fenced time he has gone up against strong fencer and, although this is the first again defeated all his opponents.

vania division, and at present holds the championship of the Pennsyl-

(Continued on page 4.)

ACCOUNTS SHOW DEFICIT.

Freshman Class Meeting Held to Discuss Finance and Kommers.

About fifty Freshmen were present at the forty-five-mile in Huntington Hall Thursday. Treasurer Whittam

(Continued on page 4)

PRIZES ESTABLISHED.

Cash for Three Best Articles on Pan-
American subjects.

Three prizes—a first prize of $100, a second prize of $75 and a third prize of $50—have been established by the Hon. John Barrett, United States Minister to Colombia, to be awarded to the authors of the best papers on any one of the subjects that the prize committee has selected the object of the prizes to be "to promote the study of history, government, politics, and the possibilities of our sister republics," and to develop throughout the United States "a wider interest in our political and commercial relations with Latin-America, and to foster a more general study of Latin-American history, institutions, politics, social and educational conditions, materials and industrial resources, and to commercial possibilities—especially as they affect the growth of closer ties of international comity and confidence." 1. The competition is open to any student, man or woman, residented during the academic year 1906-7 in any American college, university or technical school. Undergraduate, professional and graduate students are eligible. 2. Papers submitted by competitors must not exceed 10,000 words.

3. Papers accompanied by the full name and address of the writer and statement of the class and college, university, or technical school to which the writer belongs, must be mailed or delivered to an express company not later than Sept. 1, 1906, addressed to the President of Columbia University, New York, N. Y., and the names of the judges chosen for the purpose.

4. Papers will be transmitted by the汽车产业 to the Editor of the "American Republics." 5. The paper awarded the first prize must be transmitted by the undermentioned to the Director of the "American Republics." 6. All papers submitted in competition, other than the one to which the first prize is awarded, will be destroyed as soon as the prizes have been awarded, unless, at the time of sending, a competitor asks for the return of the manuscript and furnishes a fully stamped and properly addressed envelope.

7. Papers must be submitted in typewritten form.

Any one of the following subjects may be chosen:

1. POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC.

a. The Monroe Doctrine and its influence on the political and economic development of Latin-America.

b. The influence of the Panama Canal on the commercial and political development of Latin-

America.

2. PRESENT CONDITIONS AND FUTURE.

(Continued on page 4.)

FACULTY NOTICES.

German III.—German III. meets on Saturdays at 12 in 24 Lowell.

Tabular View Correction.—Ins-

sert Martin as follows:

1. German Sight Reading.—German Sight Reading on Tuesdays at 3 and Thursdays at 11 in 24 Lowell.

Chemistry.—Chemistry First Year recitation, section 15, changed, Tuesday 12-1, 21 Walker; Wednesday 13-1, 20 Walker.

First Year English.—Members of Mr. Colfester's First Year English divisions, first term, may get their "long books" by applying to him before the next two weeks.

Spanish I.—Spanish I, section 15, will meet Mr. Lenz in 21 Lowell today at 1 p.m., to determine upon times; it is proposed to hold recitations on Tuesday at 2 o'clock, and on Wednesday and Friday at 4 o'clock.

NOTICES.

Seniors.—There will be an important meeting of the class of 1906 next Monday at 1 p.m., in 6 Lowell.

1908—There will be a meeting of the Sophomore Class in Huntington Hall today at one o'clock. Every man in the class should be there.

Lost.—A Waterfont Fountain Pen, mottled brown, rubber ring and clip holder. Finder please leave at Cage for MAURICE E. ALLEN, 60.

1907.—There will be a meeting of the Junior Class in Huntington Hall next Monday to discuss the arrangements for the semi-annual class dinner.

Round Table.—All members of the Round Table who wish to attend are asked to have a member of the committee, please will leave a note at the Cage for G. S. WINNERS, 1299 Park Hall.