FIRST KOMMERS SUCCESS.

Fifty Men Present. Mr. Rand Outlines Plans for Future.

Exactly fifty men attended the Kommers Saturday evening and had an enjoyable time. Gov. Curtis Guild was expected to be present, but was prevented by his official duties.

V. O. Coe, '06, of the House Committee, acted as toastmaster. The meal served was an excellent one, and every man had all he wanted. Mr. Rand said that it was the intention to give as good a meal as it was possible to give, whether or not the Union lost or made money.

Mr. Rand told a few excellent stories, and in outlining the plans for future Kommers announced that he hoped to secure the following men to talk on various evenings:

Pres. Burrage, of the Eliot National Bank, on "Banking"; Lyman Unwin, of the Architectural Engineers, sculptors, and painters. Paris has been laid out as a result of collaboration between architects, engineers, sculptors, and painters. Paris is the most beautiful and artistic city in the world. Only recently have Americans begun to beautify their cities, and a great field of useful work is open to the future architect.

Whatever may be the feeling between the average Harvard and the average Tech man, it must be said that nothing but a feeling of the best of good fellowship exists between the students of the Architectural Institute until next Fall. It has thereupon been decided that resolutions of recognition be read at a meeting of the Class of '1908 in front of Houghton Hall Wednesday, Feb. 21, at 1 P.M., with the chorus.

Mr. H. F. Pierce will speak on "Special Problems in Surveying, and How to Meet Them." Several things in connection with "Technique '08" will be discussed.

Show Rehearsals. — All candidates for the chorus should report at the Union on Wednesday, Feb. 21, promptly at 4 P.M. It is important that every member of the chorus be present at rehearsals. All candidates for principal parts will be tried out, and those who fail to report must take their chances on selection. All candidates should report at 4 P.M. at the Union on Friday, Feb. 23, at 4 P.M. Candidates for Assistant Stage Manager will report on Wednesday, Feb. 21, with the chorus.

Gould, '07, captain, and W. J. Kelly, '09, manager, for next year.

CHICAGO CLUB DINES.

The Chicago Club held its eleventh annual dinner at the Marilave Hotel Friday evening. The dinner was an overwhelming success, being well attended, and the old Chicago spirit of sociability being pleasingly evident.

The most interesting feature of the dinner was the toasts Retiring-Pres. Mann, '06, and Press Elag, '97, which the assembly into a whirlpool of good spirits with their toasts.

After dinner the ordinary business of the club was conducted. It was decided that resolutions of recognition be read, and that the society is soon to lose Dr. Pritchett as its president, the resolutions to appear in Tech Tecn.
