SPEAKS OF TOLSTOY.

The Rev. T. Van Ness Tells Y. M. C. A. of common people, hated by the gov-Siberia, a road which many of his lie
His beliefs have so alienated the strive for better manners of life.
Russian peasants from their lethargy the simplest manner, surrounded by fire and enthusiasm of youth shine country estate and there began his slaves free. Finally, however, the parallel to that in the United States ment. The situation in Russia was Nihil-
great agitation began throughout the famous and vivid descriptions of the Reading of Lowell Course.

James Jackson Putnam, M. D.,
Professor of Neurology at the Har-Medical School, and physician in the Neurological Department,

FENCING TONIGHT.

Tech Meets Harvard and University
Pennsylvania at the Gym.

The Fencing Association will hold third meeting of this season the varity men are in better now that they were before Harvard and Columbia, and a close meet is promised.
Harvard will enter the same team that won the triangular meet held Feb. 16. These men have had prac-tual purposes and are reported to be in tip-top condition. Nothing can said of the strength of the Penny which it has not competed in any meets which give an opportunity for judging from reports, Harvard has the street, while Technology and the U. of P. are about on a plane.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Bowlind is to publish a new song book, which will contain about 90 songs.

Bates College has voluntarily voted to abolish hazing.

California University has organized a postal club for the men and a fencing club for the women.

Secretary Taft will deliver four lectures at Yale in the country of theANI

All men from Ohio are invited to the Union next Monday at 6.30
P.M.

Musical Clubs. — The Musical Clubs will give a concert this evening in the Medford Opera House.
Members of the clubs will meet at Sullivan 8, at 9 P.M., at the Gym.

TECH SHOW.

The following men have been selected provisionally as principals of the Show this year; Scholfield, '09; Jenkins, '08; Ellis, '09; Boley, '07; Vonnegut, '08; Allen, '07; Adams,
'08; Henderson, '06; Sands, '08;
Harley, '09; Coillo, '07; Hancroft, '07.
The practice will be rehearsed on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays at the Union. About fifty men are out for the chorus but the performent desires to have a much larger number come out. There are good chances for men to make the chorus, and those fortunate enough certainly not regret it, for this year's chorus promises the best time yet.
The chorus rehearsal will be held Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and

4 P.M.

Mr. H. McCready has been appointed as an Assistant Business Manager.

NOTICES.

Chess Club. — Meetings of the Chess Club are held in 11 Rogers at 1 P.M.

Electoral Committee. — Ballots for the 1909 Technique Electoral Committee are now at the Cage, and should be called for immediately:

Ohio Club. — There will be an informal dinner of the Ohio Club at the Union next Monday at 6.30.
All men from Ohio are invited to attend.

Lowell Institute. — The tenth course of Lowell Institute Lectures, "Scandinavian Antiquities," which was to have begun last Tuesday, has been given up.

Basketball Team meet at Gym.

Cross Country. — The Cross Country Association will hold its first spring race and Hounds chase tom-row at Reading. The men will have track 7, North Station, at 2.15.
Round trip fare 25c.

Missouri Men. — The Missouri Club dinner will be held at the Union this evening at 6.30 sharp.
It is requested that all men be present on time, as special entertainment has been provided, and it is desired to finish by 8 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. — Ballots for the elections of officers of the Y. M. C. A. are ready at the Union, and are due at the regular Thursday meeting. The candidates are as fol-

For President, F. O. Adams;
T. C. Keeling; For Vice President, (Continued on page 5.)