GOOD CONCERT IN WEST NEWTON.

The Mandolin and Glee Clubs enjoyed one of the pleasantest trips of the year Friday evening when they played at the Unitarian Church in West Newton. A one hour program was rendered in five clubs last manner. The Mandolin Club introduced "Ophelia" from "The Chorus Honeymoon", for the first time. Mr. Arthur Kilkon made his first appearance with the club as vocal soloist and won much applause. After the concert, refreshments were served by the young ladies of the church. Dancing followed at eleven o'clock. The program rendered was as follows:

"Winter Song" F. F. Sullivan '87
