AT THE THEATRES

Tremont Theatre.
At last the long anticipated co-star engagement of James K. Hackett and Mary Manning, in Alfred Sutro's great drama, "The Walls of Jericho," draws near, as these two distinguished stars will begin a limited stay of two weeks on Monday next at the Tremont Theatre. On this occasion they will present "The Walls of Jericho," a play which dramatic essayists, in both the daily prints and magazines, have loudly proclaimed as the best drama of the season.

"The Earl and The Girl" begins an engagement at the Majestic Theatre Saturday, April 7. This play is a combination of merriment and melody, with an endless parade of pretty girls. The company is headed by Eddie Foy, whose mirth-provoking qualities are well known in Boston, besides eighteen other artists. The production in its entirety is the original one which so enthusiastically secured a success in New York City.

ANNOUNCEMENT,
1906.
We have received for Spring and Summer a complete line of Cloths for Men's Wear from the leading Foreign and American Houses. Just a look, and you will be convinced that they are the best and choicest.
