Window at twelve o'clock tomorrow when Technique comes out. It is necessary for the customary snap, and vim of the rush for every man to put on his old clothes and get there early. The fair Junior Week friend will be there to cheer the winner. The Technique Board promises that you will be in closer touch with your class than ever before. The first twenty five books will be distributed to the winning Tech men, and on the first five books the price will be refunded. Every man come out, get your ticket and an old suit and make this the most impressive rush yet held.
