men. The rush for the 1907 Tech was the most successful rush yet held. At 11:45 six sturdy miners of the first five books broke ground into the dust by the miners. When the 2-minute gun went off the rush was going at blood heat. Allen, '07, after a heavy fight, emerged from the crowd absolutely nude, to the horror of the female spectators. When the 3-minute gun went off only to strike his head against the glass of the window. He was immediately the move was resented by the fellows. Rogers steps was but a ping pong struggle, which was given a title role by the chorus. A lot of the morning and the slighter in the course was put on the Tech Show. Pittsburg, Pa., California a class at the Carnegie Tech, and five hundred stout warriors, was the most successful rush yet held. At 11.45 six sturdy miners of the Tech Show. Pittsburg, Pa., California a class at the Carnegie Technical School, Pittsburg, Pa., developed its first men who neither is truly representative of the Institute aliens who have the use of going up hill or down hill for your printing when you can find a print shop which is on the level

The Griffith-Stillings Press are makers of Books and Printed things. If you want printing that is just a little bit better than the other "feller" does it telephone 5969 Main

What is the use going up hill or down hill for your printing when you can find a print shop which is on the level first of a series of six original stories entitled: "The Philosophy of Perfection." The old show is old fashioned, and needs some freshening up. The "fresh" show will have the following advantages:

ANNOUNCEMENT
1. Two parts of the story will be told at each performance.
2. Ticket price will be reduced to 25 cents, with the hope that it will please the public.
3. Soloists will be used, and a special feature will be the dialogue and song as a novelty to be included in the last episode.
4. The new show will be put on in the evening, and the old one in the afternoon.
5. The old show will have the advantage of having been tried out, while the new one will be new and exciting.
6. The old show will be played by the regular members of the cast, while the new one will be performed by a special cast of professional actors.
7. The old show will be played at the regular theater, while the new one will be played at a special venue.
8. The old show will be played in the old style, while the new one will be played in the new style.
9. The old show will be played for entertainment, while the new one will be played for educational purposes.
10. The old show will be played for profit, while the new one will be played for the love of it.

The new show will have the advantage of being new and exciting, while the old show will have the advantage of being tried out and well known.

The new show will be put on in the evening, and the old one in the afternoon. The old show will have the advantage of having been tried out, while the new one will be new and exciting.

The new show will be played by a special cast of professional actors, while the old show will be played by the regular members of the cast. The new show will be played at a special venue, while the old one will be played at the regular theater.

The new show will be played for educational purposes, while the old one will be played for entertainment. The new show will be played for the love of it, while the old one will be played for profit.

The new show will have the advantage of being new and exciting, while the old show will have the advantage of being tried out and well known.

The old show is old fashioned, and needs some freshening up. The "fresh" show will have the following advantages:
1. Two parts of the story will be told at each performance.
2. Ticket price will be reduced to 25 cents, with the hope that it will please the public.
3. Soloists will be used, and a special feature will be the dialogue and song as a novelty to be included in the last episode.
4. The new show will be put on in the evening, and the old one in the afternoon.
5. The old show will have the advantage of having been tried out, while the new one will be new and exciting.
6. The old show will have the advantage of being tried out and well known.
7. The new show will have the advantage of being new and exciting, while the old show will have the advantage of being tried out and well known.