AT THE THEATRES.

Tremont Theatre.

Bertha Kalich's first Boston appearance as an English-speaking star at the Tremont last week was a repetition of the success she has met with in other cities. The emotional power and finished technique of this young actress are a veritable revelation to those to whom until this season she was unknown. Her portrayal of the difficult role of Monna Vanna in Masterlinck's poetic play of that name stamps Madame Kalich as a dramatic actress of exceptional talent. For her last appearance as an English-speaking star in Boston at the Tremont last week was a performance as an English-speaking star in "Therese Raquin," which has been in rapid succession, proving again his great ability, and his return for the rest of the season is demonstrating the wisdom of the Castle Square Management in recalling him to the position he so ably filled through the whole of last season. For this week "The Adventure of Lady Ursula" is announced. This is one of the most successful of Anthony Hope's plays, and it vies in ingenuity and popularity with "The Prisoner of Zenda" and "Rupert of Hentzau." Fully as dramatic as either of those dramas, it possesses also a comedy element that makes it one of the brightest and most amusing plays known to the modern stage. Following Anthony Hope's play, two novelities will be offered at the Castle Square—"The Light That Failed," Rudyard Kipling's romantic story, and "The Admirable Crichton," J. M. Barrie's sparkling comedy made familiar by William Gillette.

James U. Nicholas, a former member of the Class of 1905, who will be well remembered as having played the leading part in the "Tweed Show," "Poly Con," is at present a resident of Australia, but will return to the Institute next fall.
