ANNUAL PRIZE DRILL TODAY.

Ten Squads of Three Men are Entered. Freshmen Will Give Prize Drill.

The Annual Interscholastic Competitive Drill will be held at the Armory this afternoon. The committee in charge is composed of Hodson, Chairman, and W. W. King, R. H. Allen, Whitaker, Miller, Dickerman and Jackson. Ten schools have entered teams of three men each and large delegations are expected from various schools in addition to the teams from W. H. Park, Methuen, Concord, N. H., Stoneham and Wakefield. Medford has won the cup for two years.

The exercises will begin at two o'clock with a short exhibition drill by the Freshman Battalion, consisting of a Company Drill, Battalion Drill and escort to the colors.

The Interscholastic Competitive Drill will be judged by C. C. Batchelor, Sergeant Major, Captains of the 1907 and 1908 high schools that have entered are those of Brockton, Lowell, Gloucester, New Bedford, Medford, Hyde Park, Methuen, Concord, N. H., Stoneham and Wakefield. Medford has won the cup for two years.

The exercises will begin at two o'clock with a short exhibition drill by the Freshman Battalion, consisting of a Company Drill, Battalion Drill and escort to the colors.

The Interscholastic Competitive Drill will be judged by C. C. Batchelor, Sergeant Major, Captains of the 1907 and 1908 high schools that have entered are those of Brockton, Lowell, Gloucester, New Bedford, Medford, Hyde Park, Methuen, Concord, N. H., Stoneham and Wakefield. Medford has won the cup for two years.

The exercises will begin at two o'clock with a short exhibition drill by the Freshman Battalion, consisting of a Company Drill, Battalion Drill and escort to the colors.

The Interscholastic Competitive Drill will be judged by C. C. Batchelor, Sergeant Major, Captains of the 1907 and 1908 high schools that have entered are those of Brockton, Lowell, Gloucester, New Bedford, Medford, Hyde Park, Methuen, Concord, N. H., Stoneham and Wakefield. Medford has won the cup for two years.

The exercises will begin at two o'clock with a short exhibition drill by the Freshman Battalion, consisting of a Company Drill, Battalion Drill and escort to the colors.

The Interscholastic Competitive Drill will be judged by C. C. Batchelor, Sergeant Major, Captains of the 1907 and 1908 high schools that have entered are those of Brockton, Lowell, Gloucester, New Bedford, Medford, Hyde Park, Methuen, Concord, N. H., Stoneham and Wakefield. Medford has won the cup for two years.